

Kerry Logistics Network Named Best IR Company at HKIRA 3rd Investor Relations Awards 2017

Hong Kong, 31 May 2017

Kerry Logistics Network Limited ('Kerry Logistics' or the 'Company'; Stock Code 636.HK) excelled at the Hong Kong Investor Relations Association ('HKIRA') 3rd Investor Relations Awards 2017 (the 'Awards') with four wins, including being named Best Investor Relations Company in the mid-cap category. The award winners were voted online by members of the investment community, including both the domestic and international buy-side and sell-side analysts, and fund managers.

In recognition of its excellence in investor relations practices, Kerry Logistics and its executive received the following accolades:

- Best IR Company (Mid Cap)
- Best IR by CFO – Mr. Ellis Cheng
- Best IR in Corporate Transaction
- Best Investor Meeting

William Ma, Group Managing Director of Kerry Logistics, said, "We are very proud of having achieved this endorsement from HKIRA. It is our commitment building long-term relationships with investors and maintaining transparent bilateral communication with the investment community. The awards reaffirm our commitment, and will motivate us to keep up the continuous improvement in corporate governance and investor relation practices."

Launched in 2015, the HKIRA Investor Relations Awards aims to recognise and celebrate remarkable investor relations practices among Hong Kong listed companies, and to raise awareness of the importance of good investor relations undertakings. A total of over 8,400 votes were cast by over 640 eligible voters from the domestic and international investment community.
