

Kerry Logistics Wins Quam IR Awards 2016 under Main Board Category

Hong Kong, 25 May 2017

Kerry Logistics Network Limited ('Kerry Logistics' or the 'Company'; Stock Code 636.HK) has won the Quam IR Awards (the 'Awards') 2016 under Main Board category in recognition of its excellence in investor relations. Winners were celebrated at the grand award presentation ceremony in Hong Kong today. Placed among illustrious elites across different sectors, Kerry Logistics is proud to be the first logistics company to receive this accolade.

Organised by Quam Investor Relations ('Quam IR'), a strategic investor relations service provider under Quamnet, the Awards honour Hong Kong listed companies for their outstanding performance in corporate transparency, investor relations and interactions with shareholders. Winners were selected by an expert panel of judges comprising Quamnet's analysts and research team.

Ellis Cheng, Chief Financial Officer of Kerry Logistics, said, "We are honoured to receive this prestigious award for the first time. It is truly an encouragement to our continued commitment in delivering high standard investor relations practices since our listing in 2013. To establish timely, transparent and effective communication with the investor community is the key to our investor relations programme. We will continue to make our best efforts to advocate corporate governance and be accountable to investors, creating long-term value and rewarding returns to them."

Kerry Logistics was also crowned Outstanding Logistics Solution Provider 2016 and Outstanding Global Logistics Network 2015 by Quamnet.
